Function & Responsibilities

Tina is responsible for leading and developing the Asset Services business in EMEA covering 14 countries with more than 1.200 employees managing 34 Mio sqm commercial property across the region. The firm's regional operating platform enables Cushman & Wakefield to cater to the local and cross border requirements of clients, providing a seamless and centralised approach to Asset Services.

As a member of the EMEA Executive Committee - Cushman and Wakefield's European Board - she is also responsible for setting and leading the strategic direction for the firm.

Professional Expertise

Tina joined Cushman & Wakefield in March 2013 and was since then leading large and diverse multi country businesses. She has over 20-years leadership experience in the real estate industry, international expertise and cross sector exposure. Prior to Cushman & Wakefield, she worked seven years with JLL where she held various management & leadership positions. Before she spent six years working as Senior Manager with one of the first and largest German private-public partnership projects and as an Architect in an architectural office.
